

Guarantee Card

Guarantee Conditions

1. Quickshot (Europe) Ltd grants a twelve months' guarantee.
2. The guarantee is effective as from the day of purchase, but not later than the day on which the equipment passes into the possession of the buyer.
3. The guarantee is given in such a form that at the discretion of Quickshot (Europe) Ltd parts which have demonstrably become defective as a result of faults in material or workmanship will be replaced free of charge. This does not affect the expiry date of the guarantee. Replaced parts become the property of Quickshot (Europe) Ltd. This guarantee provides no grounds for further claims, in particular those for annulment of sale, reduction or compensation for damages.
4. Any transportation of the product for repair purposes takes place at the risk and the expense of the sender.
5. Should the unit become defective during the guarantee period as a result of faulty materials or workmanship, it should be returned where possible to place of purchase along with your purchase receipt.

6. Not covered by this guarantee are:

- a. Damage caused by interference from third parties who have not been authorized by the Quickshot (Europe) Ltd to do so.
- b. Damage arising from negligence, improper use, violence or inexpert handling.
- c. Batteries, if the product is battery-operated, or any damage arising from the use of faulty or old batteries.
- d. Damage arising from disregard of the instructions for use, e.g. connection to/operation with incorrect current/voltage.
- e. Parts that are subject to wear.

7. The guarantee becomes void if the date of purchase stated on the guarantee card is changed, deleted, removed or defaced.

8. Immediately after purchasing the product, the guarantee card must be filled out and returned to the address below
